PRODUCT & GROWTH STRATEGY EXPERIENCE

Senior Product Strategist

Stellar Elements, an Amdocs company - Remote

January 2022 - Present

At Stellar Elements, an agency specializing in strategic product consulting I drove the definition, design, and implementation of products and services that improved customer engagement, revenue, and operational efficiencies for both enterprise and scale-up clients in CPG, AI, education, cloud storage, transportation, logistics, fintech, and telco industries.

- Product management: Led end-to-end product specification for the Steamship Authority's booking experience redesign, creating comprehensive PRD, user stories, and API architecture - delivering ahead of schedule with 65% Customer Effort Score improvement validated through usability testing.
- Innovation facilitation: Enabled rapid, user-focused development of Hewlett-Packard's AI Companion by connecting market insights with user needs and questioning assumptions, leading to a successful product launch within one month.
- Stakeholder alignment: Drove cross-functional alignment for a $2B logistics company by transforming competing departmental goals into a shared metrics framework, enabling the product team to prioritize features that grew marketplace liquidity while balancing supply and demand-side needs.
- Business case development: Developed and presented product strategies and go-to-market plans, pioneering the use of AI-driven client research and quantitative growth models for 13 client pitches, resulting in over $13M in new business.
- People management: Managed a product analyst and oversaw the creation of an experimentation program that led to a 46% increase in new sales leads for Vestis Uniforms (formerly Aramark Uniforms).

Growth Lead

ADK Group (acquired by Stellar elements) - Boston, MA

January 2019 - December 2021

Led a team of three specialists in content, SEO, and analytics, successfully creating and executing growth strategies for agency clients like Toyota, Mercer, Vyaire, and Wasabi Technologies.

- User acquisition: Formulated paid acquisition strategy and redesigned onboarding funnel to acquire first 500+ paying customers and double conversion rate from 3.8% to 8.4% for Form Health, a consumer health startup.
- A/B testing: Established an experimentation program for Wasabi Technologies, an enterprise B2B SaaS company, that drove an increase in free trial conversion rate from 2.7% to 4.4% (+63%).
- Go-to-market strategy: Defined the Ideal Customer Profile, primary channels, KPIs, messaging, and first-time UX for Firefly Health.

SEO Specialist

ADK Group (acquired by Stellar elements) - Boston, MA

March 2017 - January 2019

Developed and executed a comprehensive SEO playbook that dramatically increased organic traffic and conversions for our clients, establishing a scalable growth foundation.

- Operations: Designed internal processes for keyword research, content strategy, technical optimizations, and website analytics to help onboard new hires and scale the marketing team from one to four across 18 clients.
- SEO and content strategy: Created and executed an SEO strategy that grew organic traffic for Wasabi Technologies, an enterprise B2B SaaS company, from less than 100 to over 10,000 monthly visitors in four months.
